

Due to the large standard equipment and the optimal balance between price and efficiency this multifunctionally useable machine is the ideal solution for the professional craftsman.

Slik 7

edge sanding machine

The solid edge sanding machine slik 7 is equipped with oscillation of the sanding belt. Due to the large standard equipment and the optimal balance between price and efficiency this multifunctionally useable machine is the ideal solution for the professional craftsman.

- Generously dimensioned working table with integrated T-slot for the mitre fence
- Additional emergency stop button on the sanding aggregate for heightened safety
- Serially with three changeable abrasive sleeves (38, 50 and 76 mm)
- Easy changing of the sanding belt using the quick clamping lever
- Belt tension with tightening springs for automatic compensation of length tolerances
- Height adjustable supporting table with 4 elements for the abrasive sleeves
- Both-sided extraction socket 100 mm for an optimal dust extraction

FEATURES

- Oscillating sanding belt warrants a high removal rate and a clean sanding result
- Height adjustable working table can be moved forward and backward
- Serially with rubber coated sanding roller for internal and external grinding